

Artist Application

Thank you for your interest in becoming an artist at SAGE Studio! SAGE Studio works with artists with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) in two capacities: our studio artists create their art in our East Austin studio, with the guidance of practicing artist facilitators. All materials are provided to studio artists by SAGE. The fee for a four-hour studio session is $50 and the fee for our two-hour Thursday evening session is $25 (financial assistance may be available if needed). Studio artists must:

- be 18+
- have an intellectual or developmental disability
- live in the Austin area
- have a serious interest in art-making
- be able to work and navigate the facility independently with minimal assistance
- be responsible for their own personal care (toileting, feeding, self-administering medication) or be able to provide attendant care
- exhibit non-aggressive behavior and not present a danger to themselves or others
- have no elopement issues
- exhibit behavior in line with our Community Standards and Values
- adhere to our most up-to-date safety and health protocols

Studio artists are eligible, but not guaranteed, to have their work exhibited in the gallery.

SAGE Studio also represents artists in our gallery and online store who create their work outside the studio. If you are an artist with IDD living in the United States and you have a developed artistic practice, you are eligible to apply to be an exhibiting artist. For all original artwork sold in the gallery or our online store, artists are paid a commission of 50%.
